From Dayton Daily News - 1 June 52

63

Ball of fire exploded over Washington state at 1230 a.m. on Thursday night, 29 May 52 (actually 0030 PST, ~~30 May 52~~). Was similar to one that exploded on 11 May. Was bluish white light, silent, and burst into pieces. Astronomers say it was a meteor. Seen by State Cop [redacted]. Seemed to be over Port Townsend.
