

JOURNAL OF HUMANOID STUDIES VOL. 2 NR. 2

XX

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

1. CURRENT CASE LOG
2. ENCOUNTERS with the Blond and their kin, Part 3.
3. The Pre-Arnold Corner
4. The Fringe.

HUMANOID = AN ADJECTIVE MEANING
HAVING HUMAN FORM OR CHARACTERISTICS.

CLOSE ENCOUNTER OF THE THIRD KIND OR CE3:

SEEING OR COMING IN CONTACT WITH AN ENTITY OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN, BEING RELATED TO UFOS
OR NOT.

this point they weren't really panicking that much, when one of them looked straight ahead he could have sworn he saw a dark figure, standing on its hind legs, walk past the tree-line about 5 meters ahead of them. The witness almost hyperventilated, and they started sprinting back to a nearby gazebo. They discussed whether they should go back to one of the men's place (about 300 meters from the park, and facing it as well), or if they should run back to the creek and investigate once more.

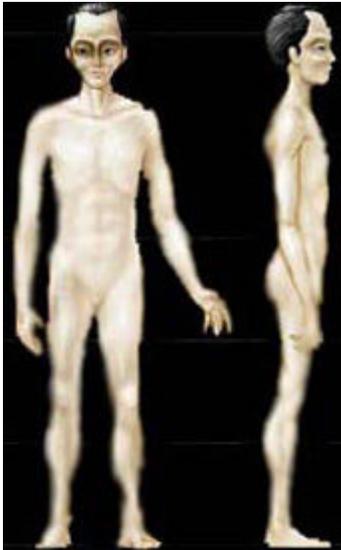

They went back to the creek and immediately started seeing more shadows and hearing more unnatural, un-suburban noises. At this point it started raining heavily, and they saw a gargantuan storm cloud approaching, they decided to bolt back to the man's place. They started running in the opposite direction of the creek. One of the men turned his head for a split second, and he saw what he described as a "Green man". He looked to be wearing something green, covering his hair (if he had any), but it almost looked like it was attached to his skull. He did not have a shirt on and he had dark green skin. A darker texture than whatever was on his head. He looked like he had some sort of dead furred animal over his shoulders, and in the opposite hand, he was carrying what looked like some sort of long, melee weapon. Possibly a staff or stick. He was looking out from under the creek; therefore, the witness did not see his lower half. He had big bulgy black eyes, that literally protruded out of his head, almost like a grasshopper, he had a mouth where his chin was supposed to be. And he had a normal looking nose, although the witness did not see any nostrils, but that's more likely due to the fact that he was at a distance. He then raised what must've been his eyebrows, and gave the witness a sort of 'where are you going' look. He then appeared to have shrugged, then turned and walked away. He did not have any visible ears. Where his ears were supposed to be, it was just blank. The witness stood there in shock, hyperventilating, and lost all bodily functions for about half a minute, while his friend yelled for him to come. He was finally able to run and both left the area. (1)

Creature in Oregon.

On October 28 2010 at around 2300-0045 in the city of Newberg Oregon, two men were walking in the woods near the Friendsview Manor when they caught a glimpse of a weird, 2 legged creature running through a patch of grass to the left of the walking path. They were startled, as it was running into the dark. About 5 minutes later, 100 yards up the path, they saw this 'thing' run by again. This time they could see that it had two skinny dark legs (like the hind ones of a deer, forked forward at the knees). It was short (approximately waist level) and leaping/running farther up the trail. It was dark, and definitely not a person or deer. The thing made no noises and they only saw it for a second. Then two days later while playing disc golf at Ewing Young Course on a wooded section of the course, two other men and one of the original witnesses saw a similar creature during the day. As they approached hole 10 from behind the basket, they saw the same thing. It had slick greasy looking black hair like that of a dog and the same forked legs at the knee. They could not see a face, because a small tree blocked the view. After about 5 seconds of standing still, it hopped behind the tree out of sight. When they went to look, it was gone. The source contacted a local pet owner who had once owned wallabies and stated that the last time had any of them it was 2 years ago. He also affirmed that he doubted that wallabies could survive in this climate during the winter. (2)

Strange “dream” in Montana.

Around November 3 2010 (date is unsure) in Miles City, Montana on a cool fall night, the witness for some reason was extremely tired and went to early around 2130. Later that night he was dreaming about something which he could not remember (which he thought it was weird since he usually remembers his dreams) when a bright light began to shine through his window waking him. He wasn't fully awake; he was more in a sort of half awake half sleep state. When he sat up and pulled back the curtain, he remembered seeing a tall figure looking down at him with the light shining from behind it. The figure had large black eyes, pale-white/gray skin and it was looking at the witness. He remembered thinking that it was a dream and just rolling over and going back to sleep. It was at that point he started to feel very light. As if he were floating away from his bed or body (which he thought it might have been sleep paralysis) and then everything went blank. He had no more dreams that night and woke up at around 600am feeling very refreshed. (3)

Hybrids in St Louis?

On December 24 2010 around 1400-1500 an anonymous witness was working at a mall in St Louis, Missouri and was at a kiosk in the middle of the mall. She pointed out that during the holiday season she will see all kinds of different people out shopping, specially right before Christmas. She had been looking down the middle of the mall and saw two ‘people’, a man and a young boy who looked to be about 3 or 4, she wasn't really sure. They were the strangest looking people she had ever seen in her life. No birth defect, no ethnic trait, nothing that she have ever seen had produced a human that looked like them...and the boy's face looked exactly like the ‘father’ (or the adult accompanying him). The ‘father’ was a man about 5'10” maybe 6’ tall, and he had broad shoulders and looked sturdy, but not “built”.

His body was very ‘flat’, she insisted that she knows that it didn't made any sense, but the he had no protruding pectoral muscles or the quadriceps were not shaped as curved as a normal person. He had khaki pants on and a solid colored sweater. The boy was dressed exactly the same. His son (if that's what he was) was small like a child, but was not proportioned exactly the way a child is, he was more like a ‘dwarf’. They both had large heads and the man's cranium was larger than normal, according to the witness, and his face had very flat planes on the front, sort of sunken in. The little boy had the 'sunken in' look as well. They both had abnormally round eyes that looked completely emotionless. They had pale blond hair, and both had the same short haircut. They were not holding hands. What struck her as most odd was that the little boy was waling in front of the 'father', a couple of feet ahead of him, and the father looked straight ahead. So did the boy. They didn't walk fast, nor slowly, they walked at an even pace, very sterile. It was the oddest thing she had ever thing.

According to the witness she knew the second she looked into the adult's eyes that he was not of this Earth (or plane?). The boy didn't act like a boy either; he acted completely emotionless, unlike a normal boy, specially during the holidays. She had originally noticed the adult man when he was at about 20 feet away from her. The second she saw him she noticed his 'very strange' eyes, very round and empty looking. He apparently noticed the witness looking at him but his eyes never shifted from looking straight ahead, as they walked back she kept staring at them, as they walked further away. She did not see them go into any of the stores and they did not look back at her. The witness, who seemed very sincere and genuinely afraid, reported that several nights after this encounter, she had been in her kitchen when she hears noises coming from the bathroom, when she walks in the bathroom to see what the noise is, it stops. Another night she was unable to sleep since she heard dishes rattling around in the sink (poltergeist activity?), she also heard cabinets opening and closing inexplicably. (4)

Another flying humanoid.

On January 6 2011, at around 9:15am, the witness was driving on Silas Creek Parkway in Winston-Salem North Carolina. As he slowed the car at the Peter's Creek intersection he looked up to see something 'floating' fairly high in the sky in a southeasterly direction. It was like something he had never seen before. It was very dark against the light blue morning sky, elongated vertical, strangely shaped like a humanoid figure. He stopped at the bank and caught sight of it again, high over the tree line, he asked the teller if she could see it also and she said she could (must have been in the drive through), he called another teller to come over and she also saw it. As the puzzled witnesses watched a flock of birds crossed overhead, and he half heartedly joked "Well at least I hope birds don't start dropping out of the sky like the news has been reporting all over the globe!" It kept moving very slowly, much slower than a runaway balloon would travel. It was like a hefty man suspended in the air except it had to be bigger than a person. It was in sight for at least 20minutes. (5)

Little humanoid in Argentina.

One Saturday evening on January 15 2011 in the city of Victoria, Entre Rios province, Argentina, several boys were playing on the Doma El Mangrullo field reported seeing a short humanoid which they described as 'like a boy but with the face of an old man'. They observed the strange figure standing behind a barbwire fence. The strange figure stood next to a large tow truck. They reported that the figure had very short legs and at first they mistook it for a 1 year old child, but as it turned around they noticed his strange countenance. Startled upon being seen the little man ran behind a nearby tree, it then opened an iron gate and ran to a nearby field. (6)

Bedroom visitation in Belgium.

At six in the morning on January 18 2011 in the city of Strombeek-Bever, Belgium, the witness suddenly awakened to see what she described as ‘molecules or particles’ floating in all directions in her room, indicating to her that something was about to occur. Suddenly three dark shadowy gray figures appeared standing in the room. However the witness felt no fear and briefly stared at the figures, who were apparently staring at her. She then went back to sleep. (7)

Strange glowing stone after UFO sighting in Malaysia.

On January 25 2011 in the town of Petaling Jaya, Malaysia, at around 2:20am in the morning 2 men reported seeing two strange craft shaped like triangles hovering at about 50 feet from the ground. After about 3-5 minutes one of the craft ejected something like a stone-shaped object and both then disappeared. When the men approached the ‘object’ they reported that it was glowing and then they took it home with them. They added that it had a disagreeable odor.

(8).Unfortunately there is no additional information as to the fate of the so-called glowing stone.

Encounter in the mountain.

On the night of January 28 2011 in the area of Laurel Mountain near Pittsburgh Pennsylvania, a young lady and a friend had a remarkable experience.

The lady and her friend had been visiting the former cabin in the area and were in the driveway of the cabin and getting ready to drive away, when suddenly the vehicle would not budge, no matter how force the driver applied to the pedal. Looking up the witnesses spotted what appeared to be a hovering triangular shaped craft over the trees; the craft had lights at each apex and began to maneuver around. As they watched something stunning occurred, the triangle then seemed to change shape, it appear to grow wings and transform itself into what the main witness described as a ‘dragon’ or a ‘demon’, according to the main witness this creature or object flew around for a long time (there appears to be a sort of time displacement or missing time since the witness thought it was 6 hours at least!) while her companion appeared to have fallen asleep. Now at this point the dragon or demon type creature again transformed itself into a large glowing human like figure, which fell approximately 70 feet and landed on top of the cabin, it turned around and then looked straight at the witness. At this point it was about 40 ft away and she noticed that it was wearing dark clothing. It then disappeared in plain sight of the witness. During the encounter the witness reported seeing numerous other humanoid figures, all dressed in black that ran around the mountain and the car and sometimes approached her location. It seemed to her that they were performing some kind of operation on the mountain. Eventually she saw most of the figures leave up the mountain but did not see triangular craft again. In the morning, once her friend had awoken she drove home. (9)

Part 3: Encounters with the blond and their kin, the 80’s.

Despite the so-called 'gray invasion' of the 80's and the focus on abduction reports and the Roswell conundrum, encounters with this type of entities continued unabated, perhaps not in the pace of the high strangeness decade of the 70's which had just ended, but they were still around. In spite of popular belief the grays did not take over, and they were not the only 'aliens' intruding in our midst. On occasion these human-like or almost human type entities were even reported in conjunction with other humanoids, including 'grays', almost like a United Nations of 'aliens' visiting an interesting dying planet.

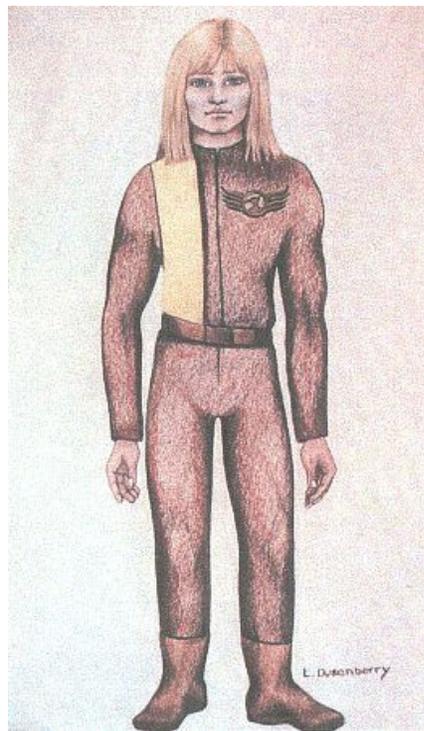

At an unspecified date in 1980 around 2200, in the suburb of Villa Andalusia, San Juan, Puerto Rico, Nancy Alvarado was on her way home and while stopped at a corner heard a message in her head 'telling her not to be afraid'. Waiting in her car she saw two figures approaching. One figure was dressed in white and the other in dark green. Both outfits were one piece and very tight-fitting. Both were human-like and the witness felt a great sense of tranquility suddenly come over her. The figure in white approached the vehicle and looked at Nancy who noticed that it had black hair and small shiny eyes; no other facial features were noted. Then the figure in dark green approached the car window, he also had black hair. Both seemed to glide just above the ground. Both figures then crossed the street and disappeared towards a nearby wooded field. Nancy then seemed to snap out of a trance and quickly drove home. She found her father who then drove back with her to the area and searched for the men, however nothing was found. (10)

In the town of Melun, Seine-et-Marne, France, a witness before the main encounter reported being followed in his vehicle by a large white ball of light on several occasions. The ball would leave a shiny white trail behind it. One time in the presence of her friend they both saw a white ball of light hovering near the house. On February 17 1980 and two more subsequent times the main witness reports being contacted by an entity which she described as man-like with beautiful blue eyes and long light-colored hair. The entity warned the witness a "coming invasion of the earth." During the last encounter the witness experienced a period of memory loss and arrived home in a state of shock, which was diagnosed the next day by a doctor. (11)

Unspecified date in 1981 on late evening in the town of Caleta Olivia, Santa Cruz province, Argentina, the main witness, Luis, accompanied by two unidentified friends watched a dark mass emerge from the sea and approach the beach area. The craft was dark and circular and landed in front of the witnesses, a ramp became visible and the men were invited inside by a voice. Once inside they found themselves in a brightly lit circular room, they could not see the source of the lighting. Several tall humanoids, about 2 meters in height, blond haired, light eyes and wearing tight-fitting white coveralls greeted the men. There were both men and women among the aliens. Some of the humanoids were seated in front of consoles and watching large screens on the walls. On some of the screens the men could see stars and suddenly on one of the screens they could see how the object moved away from the planet Earth. The craft circled the moon and they were able to see its dark side. The humanoids communicated via telepathy and told the main witness that they were now headed towards the sun. The witnesses claim that once up close to the sun it appears black in color. While they were returning to Earth, Luis was able to walk around freely and at one point approached one of the consoles and as his hand reached out to the controls the images on the screen appear to gyrate about 90 degrees, it appears that he had caused the object to turn without actually touching the console. He was then immediately told to sit back down. They returned to Earth and entered the sea in the area of the Caribbean. The witness then claims to have seen incredible endless tunnels and within the tunnels huge dome covered cities completely illuminated. Before being returned to the beach at Caleta Olivia, the witnesses claim they were implanted in their brains with what appeared to be some type of tracking device, which is used to communicate with the aliens. The implant is supposedly located behind the right ear. The investigators reported seeing a small scar at the location. (12)

One night in March 1982, in Springfield, Missouri, a local woman recalled that at the point where she was supposed to turn south in her car, she didn't. She felt as if the car was being pulled by a force faster and faster toward a light at tree-top level above and ahead of her. No engine sound, smooth no bumps, it felt like the car was floating. Then she is in a clearing in the woods with a disc shaped craft (silver) that has three legs underneath, a light shining toward the ground, and steps that fold down. She is drawn into the craft and through several rooms to a larger room with a platform like padded white silver chrome that molds to body. She “knows” to lie down. She then sees half a dozen men about six feet one or two inches tall, good build, long blond hair, high cheekbones, blue eyes. They wore tight-fitting jumpsuits (brown) with matching shoes and belt. Pale yellow stole draped over one shoulder. Winged emblem on chest, circle with a “hawk eagle” head in center and wings on each side. The men were pleasant, caring and said they were her friends. Told her they were going to do some tests but they won't hurt. The witness feels slight stinging in breast area, some type of injection on each side of armpit area. They want to see how earth women feed their babies and how they are shaped. They then helped her off the table (did not talk, could read her thoughts). They said she might see them again some time. The witness walked to door, down steps. All of the sudden she was back in her car. Turned and saw door closing on craft and legs going in as it took off with a whistling, whiny sound. Shot off ground and was gone. (13)

In 1983 (exact date unknown) around 2200 four walking back to their village near the Hwange Game Preserve in Zimbabwe were walking alongside some thick brush when they suddenly noticed a very bright light in the sky. They stopped to watch as the light descended towards them. The men then hid behind some trees as the light came lower and lower. They now could see that it was a bright disc-shaped object that had landed nearby. A door or hatch on top of the object opened and two men with light skin and shiny clothing stepped out. They floated towards the ground. At this point the witnesses panicked and ran towards the village and did not see the object depart. (14)

Again in 1983 (unknown date) in Campos Gerais, Minas Gerais state, Brazil, around 2030, a local farmer, Joaquim Antonio Luiz was returning home on his bicycle when he rounded a curve and saw what he at first mistook to be a ‘nun’ wearing white clothing. The woman-like figure wore a short dress and a blouse with a light blue belt, tilted to the left. She had long light colored hair. She seemed to be waiting for Joaquim, who felt attracted to the strange woman. She had a voluptuous body, and very nice “plump” legs. Joaquim approached and greeted the woman and then came up to her, hoping to have a more intimate encounter. As he attempted to embrace her, she suddenly made an incredible 500-meter high jump (!). She quickly disappeared from sight, becoming a small white dot in the night sky. Terrified, the witness quickly pedaled home and went to sleep. (15)

Incredibly that same year, perhaps along the same unknown time frame and a few weeks later at the Fazenda Morro das Pedras, near Florianopolis, Santa Catarina, Brazil, at 1900 one evening three young girls, Isabel, Elenice and Ercilia were returning to their home when they saw a woman with long light colored luminous hair. She wore a yellow blouse, a tight fitting cap on top of her head and a skirt of the same color. She was about 1.40 meters in height and had a serene look on her face as she floated 70cm above the ground. As she floated over a nearby creek the waters under her suddenly became agitated, emitting a loud roar. The strange figure then disappeared from sight behind some bamboo plants. The girls ran home. (16)

In the spring of 1983 outside of Kugey, Azov area, Rostov region, Russia, a case with curious parallels to the Brazilian cases was reported.

The main witness and two of his colleagues, all working as money collectors (tax?) were traveling by car towards the village of Kugey from Azov. All the men were armed since they were carrying money and other valuables. The main witness sat in the front passenger seat. Suddenly he noticed that the driver and his other companion were apparently falling asleep. He attempted to arouse them but without any results. He then looked at the road and to his most outmost amazement noticed a humanoid female standing on the road, amid the flat unpopulated steppes without any other cars visible for miles. The strange female was dressed in a tight-fitting gray blue cloak, with broad folds on the lower section that fell down to earth. She wore something resembling a cowl on her head. The woman was looking at the approaching car. While the other two men remained as if in a trance the car approached the woman to within 3 meters but instead of hitting her, the strange female suddenly vanished in plain sight, only to reappear immediately at 20 to 30 meters ahead. It again dissolved into thin air as the bumper of the vehicle again approached her. This was repeated on several occasions. While the witness watched the spectacle, he trembled with fear and sweated profusely. The vehicle approached the strange woman one last time and the witness saw something resembling a smile on her face. Suddenly the woman floated away in the opposite direction and over a freshly ploughed field, strangely increasing in size and becoming somewhat transparent and at the same time ascending over the ground higher and higher until she was lost from sight. When his two colleagues returned to normal from their trance-like state, they denied seeing anything unusual. (The exact time of this curious incident is not provided by the source).

(17)

One early morning in the summer of 1983 (a busy year!) in the town of Port Campbell, Victoria, Australia, the witness, Winnie, (apparently involved in other encounters) had decided to go from the cliff top down to one of the beaches to meditate to the sound of the waves. It was part way down before she could see the beach. What she saw stopped her in her tracks. There was a large grayish UFO standing on the beach. It was circular with a white rim around it and a large bluish silver dome on top. There was a thick mast coming out of the top and there was a door opened in the dome and steps leading down to the sand. On the sand at the foot of the steps was a man dressed in a blue suit. He had blond hair and was looking right at her. He turned and climbed the steps and then smiled at her once more before entering the craft. She hurried down the rest of the trail to the beach, losing sight of it on the way. Reaching the bottom she was amazed to find that the UFO was no longer there. She did find however three imprints about “the size of cake tins” on the sand where it had been. Curiously she felt a sense of great loss “as if a long friend had left for good.” (18)

We now move on to the year 1984 and the bizarre encounters did not stop. Sometime during that year one night in the city of Volgograd, Russia, Cristina Zametina was at home alone reading a book when suddenly she found herself not knowing how transported to a sandy shore. Nearby she noted a ball shaped luminous object hovering close to the ground. Next to it sat a man, normal in appearance, wearing a dark jumpsuit. By using a hand gesture he called her over. As she approached the man began speaking (in Russian) about his planet of origin, about the numerous long wars they had gone through and more specifically the interest their civilization has on terrestrial women. The reason being, as a result of the prolonged wars, their species lost their instinct to procreate. The man approached her and asked Cristina for a piece of her skin and a lock of her hair, explaining that it would be sufficient for them in order to grow a hybrid race using human DNA. She refused, but the alien apparently took the samples anyway. She was then brought back to her living room, apparently teleported there. (19)

A peculiar encounter was reported in the spring of 1984 at around 3:40 a.m. in the city of The Hague, The Netherlands. It seems that 60-year old L. Smeets was in his bedroom when he was awakened by a bright white light that suddenly appeared in the room. Within the light two very tall gold glowing figures appeared. The figures were about 1.85 m in height, with very pale skin, with dark luminous sapphire-like eyes and shoulder length blond hair. The humanoids wore shiny golden uniforms with silvery belts. On their chest area they had an insignia resembling an arrow pointing up under a half oval shape. The beings communicated telepathically and conveyed messages of future catastrophes and wars awaiting humanity, they also explained to the witness that they were the descendants of the original inhabitants of Atlantis. After awhile the figures bade goodbye and vanished, but before they did, they promised to return and see Smeets again. (20)

On September 1 1984 at around 1800 in the evening, a six year old Japanese girl, named Nao Nishimoto, living in Takamatsu, Kagawa-ken, Hokkaido, Japan, was playing with her friends riding bicycles in the front yard of her apartment. Young Nao went to the end of the yard on her bike when she saw a large round luminous object in the sky over the rice field. She stopped at the fence and stared intently at the object, but she didn't call to her friends. The brilliant object was coming in from the right, and as it became closer and bigger, she perceived a large ring of colorful light flying outside the object at the same time. To her surprise, the ring was just like a huge necklace with brilliant beads of many kinds of colors. As it approached the front yard its shape changed from a cross to a rectangle, then to a circle. It was a very beautiful sight and as the hazy outlines of the luminous craft became clear, the "necklace" disappeared. The object appeared to be shaped like a large bell as it first came in a zigzag movement over the rice field. When it hovered a few meters from the field for a while, the ears of the rice plants swayed as if in a wind. Then the domed saucer moved to the left and hovered near a kindergarten school. It was only about 25 meters distant from the girl, so she could see its cabin as large as six or eight mat rooms (tea rooms) of a Japanese house. According to Nao, the UFO had a large dome with four portholes and a small golden ball on the top, which was very bright. Three large circular structures protruded at the bottom. The color of the hull gradually changed from orange into silver. While Nao stared at the fantastic ship, a nice looking little boy appeared at one of the four round windows---the second one from the left---and when he looked at the girl standing at the fence, the boy smiled showing his white teeth to her great surprise. Nao said the boy she saw had long hair, pulled back from his face and it reached his shoulders. His hair was golden in color and his face was round. Nao said his skin color was the same as hers; he had large round eyes, small nose and ears. Nao said she only saw the upper half of the boy. So it seemed that his shirt was gray and a little shiny. His shirt had a V-shaped neckline. She felt sure he was a boy because of his eyes. As Nao watched, the craft flew over the roof of the kindergarten and disappeared. Nao followed a path that led to the tableland or mesa of nearby Mt. Yashima and again saw the craft now hovering low over some fields. She saw the "boy" at the window, which immediately smiled again and waved his left hand. At first he slowly raised his hand showing the palm, then he let it down, and again he raised the hand slowly. The sleeves of his clothing were long enough to reach the wrists. Soon after that the craft began to circle over the rice field in addition to rotating on its axis and flew toward the mountain. When it came to the top of the mountain, about 300 meters above the sea, the ship flashed twice and suddenly disappeared. (21)

Now we move on to 1985 and encounters with these mysterious more human-like "aliens" were still around and will finish the decade with a veritable vengeance.

Early one morning around 02:00am, in January of 1985 in the small town of Serra de Beleza, Rio de Janeiro state, Brazil, Sebastiao Tome Barbosa was walking through an isolated conservation area when he noticed a lighted section up ahead. Thinking that it was a car trespassing in a restricted area he went to investigate. As he reached the area he was stunned to see a large lighted disc-shaped object resting on the ground. Next to the object stood two man-like figures about 1.50 meters in height. The two beings were human-like and had straight black hair. Barbosa made a sudden movement and was spotted by the two beings that immediately ran towards him. Terrified, Barbosa ran desperately towards a nearby ravine and hid behind some rocks. He watched from behind the rocks as the figures apparently searched for him. After a few minutes the figures returned to the disc. Later Barbosa quietly emerged from his hiding place and observed the two beings apparently collecting items from around the disc and putting them inside a type of sack. At this point he noticed that the two beings resembled humans very much and had extremely wide chests. At about 0300am the two beings entered the landed disc through an opened hatch. The object then climbed vertically gaining height at very high speed and then it flew silently away from the area. (22)

On the night of April 26 1985 in Brewster New York, a man named Dean Fagerstrom (involved in other controversial encounters) was returning home when a detour sent him out of his way and he became lost. He ended up at the New Fairfield High School. As he was turning around in the parking lot an object in the sky caught his attention. He stopped to look at it and saw a craft coming toward him at a thirty-degree angle, moving very slowly. He does not remember opening the car door, it simply opened, and he got out without thinking about it. An aqua green tunnel projected toward him from the object, winding like a culvert. A pilot, a very good looking fellow, stepped out of the tunnel, chuckling, and told Dean that he had nothing to fear. The man was dressed in a burgundy flight suit, and instructed Dean to follow him. They entered the ship, which departed at high speed, although there was no sense of motion. There were elongated portals to look out, but for whatever reason, Dean did not look out. They arrived at an earth like place and a couple of buildings were visible. He was told to walk toward a building and began to climb steps. Then out of nowhere a being named "Donestra" who Dean has had previous contacts appeared. He wore a one-piece blue jumpsuit. Dean was instructed to go over to a building and undress, then enter a cubicle, when he entered the cubicle a liquid denser than water covered him and cleansed him. Water rinsed the other liquid off, and then suddenly he was dry. When he emerged from the cubicle, his clothes were warm and looked as if they had been to the cleaners. Donestra explained that he had to be cleansed from internal ideas then took him to a large stone table where five beautiful girls representing five races were talking and laughing. Dean wanted to talk to them, but his host said the time was not right. He was told several things that he was not allowed to divulge. Soon Dean returned to the craft and the pilot returned, he does not remember the return voyage. He ended up in his car with the door closed. He could see the craft hovering above a nearby lake. (24)

On May 9 1985 around 04:30am near Haydock, England a witness had pulled over the side of the road on his motorcycle in order to smoke a cigarette and drink some tea when he suddenly became aware of a humming sound coming from an adjacent field. The witness walked over to the field to investigate. He saw a silvery glow emanating from a dip in the ground nearby. Two figures suddenly approached, and as he attempted to leave a voice said, "Do not be afraid." The figures were now a few feet away. They were both described as human-like of similar appearance but one a male and the other a female. The female was five feet tall, and the male somewhat shorter. Both had straight shoulder length blond hair parted in the middle and were dressed in blue ski type suits. Each had an egg-shaped implement attached to a belt around their waists. The woman did all the talking and explained to the witness that they were from the "third solar system" (?). Later both figures walked back to the silvery glow in the field. Moments later the humming sound became more intense and the glow brightened. Then an object the size of two large sized buses shaped like an elongated rugby ball lifted from the hollow. It hovered for a few seconds then silently shot away at incredible speed. (23)

In 1986 Ufology was at the height of the “Gray abduction conundrum” other strange entities were still around; in fact they had never left.

One morning during 1986 in the city of Ulyanovsk Russia a very peculiar event was reported. The witness was alone at home and was getting ready to go to work when someone rang his doorbell; he opened the door and was confronted by a seven foot tall man, wearing a silver coverall and large boots. In a low gruff voice, the intruder told the witness that he was an “alien” and needed food. Taken aback, the witness gave him some groceries. The man left on foot carrying the times wrapped in old newspapers. The witness proceeded to his job but felt an urge to return home early, upon doing so he found his pantry ransacked, all the food items missing. (25). This story of course has parallels to the old fairy stories of the middle ages in which so-called ‘fairies’ or elves, would at times still food or in other occasions would barter for food with humans.

The reports continued each one more bizarre than the other. On January 15 1986 at around 2200 in the suburb of Mokotow, near Warsaw Poland, A 42-year old man was returning to his apartment on Wiktorska Street. He was dressed in a very warm jacket and was carrying a suitcase filled with tools (being a plumber by trade). As he walked through an alley between two houses he saw a strange sight on a field located behind one of the houses. On the ground he could see an object similar to two deep plates, about 4 meters in diameter. On the area, which connected both plates, there was an opening from which a very strong yellow light emanated. He did not see any landing gear on the object. Intrigued, he began to approach the object. At first nothing happened but when he was about 2 steps away from the upper section of the object a human-like figure suddenly came out. The figure beckoned to the witness to come closer. He did and suddenly found himself standing between two black-garbed figures each holding one of his arms and “flying” through something resembling a tunnel of yellow light. They flew for several minutes; he did not think he was inside the object since it was rather small. Suddenly they catapulted inside a brightly lit area and he fainted dead away. Later he woke up at the door of his house. He felt good; however he was now wearing his jacket inside out. All his tools were somehow attached to each by a strong magnetic field or force, and his suitcase had disappeared. (26)

One evening in the spring of 1986 in the tiny country of Andorra, near Encamp, Mariel R. was visiting the area of ancient dolmens with some friends, the group decided to rest for a while and Mariel remained sitting on a rock next to two of her friends. Soon she began to hear what sounded like pebbles falling on the ground near the dolmen. She got up and approached the dolmen and saw 2 little men standing with their backs to her, as she approached the figures, they suddenly turned around, looked at her and ran into the bushes. Mariel then called the rest of her friends and they searched the woods but did not find anything. She described the little men as human-like with penetrating black eyes, dark skinned, with very long hair as compared to their stature. They wore tight-fitting light colored coveralls. (27)

On June 8 1986 in Ancerville France, a decidedly larger entity was reported. At around 2323 two men accompanied by their pedigree dog were walking along a path near a local canal by the River Marne observed a very tall, over two meters in height, human-like figure somewhat feminine in appearance standing about 40 meters away, the dog reacted becoming visibly disturbed. The being was human in appearance and was wearing a white uniform and had long blond shoulder length hair. Its arms appeared normal and it seemed to be wearing white boots and a wide belt. It was totally silent and stood straight up like a statue. Moments later the enigmatic figure moved rapidly away to the right and seemed to become elevated almost as if it were gliding and disappeared from view. (28)

On July 1986 in Mountain Home, Idaho, the witness, Jane Derry, was sleeping on a couch in her trailer, from her position she was able to see the hallway that led to the children's bedroom. She had 4 children. At about 03:00am she suddenly woke up and looked towards the hallway. There she saw, standing at one of the bedroom's door a glowing man-like figure. He wore a one-piece silvery outfit, and his hair was very long, past his shoulders. She thought in her mind, "what do you want?" and the figure turned and smiled at her. He then looked briefly into the children's room, and then back at the witness and then vanished in plain sight. (29)

The steady stream of encounters continued onto the year 1987 with more strange tales.

Sometime in 1987 between 1800-1900 in the venerable city of Cienfuegos Cuba, the witness, a deaf mute since birth, had gone outside to her yard in order to collect some clothing from the cloth-line. While performing such task she suddenly found herself bathed in a brilliant light from an unknown source. Startled she looked around until she saw in the air, above a nearby mango tree, a floating object shaped like a "half orange", with the flat edge on the bottom. The craft was replete with multicolored blinking lights, white, green, yellow, blue and red. She estimated the size of the object to have been about the same as a medium size car. It appeared to be made out of a material resembling "thick glass". Inside the object she was able to see many other lights and two seated individuals, both wearing dark green coveralls. The men were looking at the witness and both saluted her using gestures. Moments later the object moved clockwise and disappeared at high speed towards the west. She did not see any trace of fire or smoke. The object did not have any wings or rotors and apparently it was silent since no one else in the household came outside to witness the event. (30)

A little known 'contact' episode was reported on the afternoon of May 1 1987 in the small town of Chorrera, Panama. Farmer Maximo Camargo had finished doing some repairs on his house and was walking a calf back to the pen when he heard a sound, resembling a sharp hum; he ignored it thinking that it was the wind hitting the chicken wire fence. Moments later the sound became louder and he looked up to see a silvery disc-shaped object slowly descending overhead. He watched as the craft stopped at about 50 meters over a nearby field. The object remained immobile and a hatch on the underside of the center of the craft opened. A brilliant smoky beam of light emerged from the hatch and descended towards the ground, when the beam struck the ground it disappeared and a tall human-like figure became visible. The humanoid wore a long white robe, with long sleeves, a round collar, and three round golden buttons on the front. The humanoid had long shoulder length blond hair, split in the middle of the head. Afraid, Camargo thought of running back home but was suddenly unable to move. Camargo stood there as the humanoid floated towards him a few inches above the ground. The humanoid then floated next to Camargo putting a hand on his head and at the same time telling him not to be afraid, repeating that he would not be harmed.

Suddenly without knowing how, Camargo found himself apparently onboard the UFO in a large room. There were other similar beings in the room. One of them pressed a button on the wall and three large chairs emerged from the center of the floor. One of the humanoids then invited Camargo to take a seat on one of the chairs; he sat along with two of the humanoids. One of the aliens asked him what form of communications did humans use on earth. Camargo answered what he knew; he said radio, television, phones, and newspapers. He was then told that humanity had not advanced to further stages since it had suffered innumerable cataclysms. They also told Camargo that they had achieved an almost perfect spiritual level close to the divine, in which they had elected to remain. Humanity had not been able to achieve a spiritual level yet. The beings then told Camargo, "We know you since the time you were young". They also told Camargo that he would have to divulge a special message to humanity.

They warned Camargo that in 24 years humanity was going to suffer another tremendous cataclysm in which life on earth will come close to extinction (2011-2012). They were preparing themselves in order to save whomever they could. Soon he was taken to a large shiny metallic door and then inside another room, there he saw two "rings" one larger than the other, inside the smaller ring there was a small transparent sphere. Next to the sphere there were three shiny plaques arranged in a triangular formation. Each plaque had the number "666" engraved on it. He was told that this was the Earth and its "accomplishments" he was then told to go forth and spread the warning. He was then released back to the ground. (31) 18 days later on May 19 1987, Camargo would have his second encounter, in which he was transported onboard the UFO the same way as the first encounter. He was taken to an alien base apparently located in an underwater realm. Camargo was sure that the base was somewhere on earth. The underwater base was huge and he was able to see different sized 'spaceships'. He saw other distant figures or humanoids through what appeared to have been a transparent plastic covering. The humanoids wore a type of helmet equipped with large protruding goggles and appeared to be busy engaged in some type of work. Upon seeing the witness these humanoids then saluted him. He was again warned of coming catastrophes that would destroy most of life on earth and was warned that the earth was going to be struck by an errant asteroid called "Hercolubus." He was told that they hailed from the "white star" constellation in Orion more specifically "Rigel". He was to have further encounters in which he was taken into space from where on a large screen he saw the planet earth, he was also taken to the Constellation of Orion but did not visit the alien planet. (32). A lot of doom and gloom predictions to be sure, but that was to soon be the alien theme or swan song, specially at the end of 1989 and the early 90's.

In the summer of 1987, in the town of Lipkovatovka, Kharkov region, Ukraine (at that time still the Soviet Union) at around 22:00 the witness had been sound sleep when he suddenly woke up, having the feeling of a presence in the bedroom. He opened his eyes and saw to his right and close to him a woman that was sitting down. The room was also brightly lit by a streetlight from outside and he was able to see very clearly. The witness attempted to move but was completely paralyzed and he was also unable, for some unknown reason, to look directly at the woman. The woman seemed to be under 30 years of age and had long black wavy hair. She had large shiny eyes and wore a dark robe. She then approached the bed and put her hand on the witness's stomach. He tried to shout but was unable to, then he attempted to strike at the woman but it was useless. As the woman began to move her hand lower, the witness was finally able to scream at the top of his lungs. His mother then ran to his room and when she opened the door the woman had already vanished in plain sight. (33)

During July 1987, one late night in the city of Lages, Santa Catarina State, Brazil, the main witness, Jaciara, was staying at some family members house and was alone that night, when the lights of the house began turning on and off by themselves. A strange sensation overcame her and she went to bed. The lights began turning on and off faster and faster now. Terrified she stayed in bed and heard a loud metallic voice that resembled that of one of the young family members that was not at home. She ran to the kitchen then up to the loft where she opened a window and screamed for help. Later that night as she slept in the same loft accompanied by a cousin, she woke up in a trance-like state and went out to the courtyard and saw an enormous bright silvery disc-shaped craft maneuvering over the area. At the same time her cousin seemed to be in a confused state and was acting very peculiar. Another family member had heard footsteps and strange voices in the house.

Jaciara apparently then encountered in her room a tall human-like individual, with long arms, blond hair, with perfect facial features who in a friendly tone told Jaciara not to be afraid and to be calm. The tall being wore a tight-fitting metallic gray suit that covered most of his body, which was extremely muscular and fit. The being smiled at the witness and told her that she had been contacted several times before. She was then apparently taken inside a huge cigar-shaped "mother ship" which was occupied by numerous similar friendly beings. Inside the craft the witness was given several physical examinations including a gynecological exam. Blood, tissue and hair samples were taken from her. Inside the object she noticed that it seemed endless and there appeared to be no walls. Among other things the humanoids told Jaciara was that they were "mapping" the Earth and that their planet of origin was "Venus". (34)

Bizarre “Contactee” type reports continued into 1988.

On February 4 1988, in the city of Necochea, Argentina, the main witness, Amelia G. woke up in the middle of the night in a strange “narcotized” or sleepy state; she then saw standing outside her window two tall blond haired human-like figures wearing tight-fitting silvery overalls. The two figures then walked around her yard as if searching for something and then disappeared. The next morning Amelia was surprised to find a strange circular imprint on the ground of her neighbor’s yard, a Mr. Basilio Lichowsky. Others in the vicinity also reported finding strange circular ground traces, and some boys playing in the grounds of the local stadium reported finding a large circular imprint, which strangely consisted of large mushrooms or fungi.

Amelia further described the men as human-like, with straight blond hair, and about 1.70 to 1.80m in height. She also reported waking up in the morning suffering from a strong buzzing sound in her head and nausea, the clock inexplicably had stopped at 02:15am, and her pet cat was hiding under the bed apparently spooked by something. Amelia then reported experiencing bizarre dreams in which she was landed UFOs in which the tall blond-haired men would come out of. Around the same time other neighbors reported seeing strange balls of fire maneuvering over the night sky. Amelia also reported seeing balls of fire flying over her house. Later Amelia reported receiving telepathic messages from supposed extraterrestrials and seeing fragmented images of scenes apparently in other planets. She also remembered seeing a huge orange sun. She later learned again through telepathy that the extraterrestrials she had were called, Hilarion, Nada, Kuthumi and Kortan. She received a large amount of information from the extraterrestrials, included in that information was that the North American Sioux Nation was originally brought to earth from the planet Mars and the Gypsies originated from the lost continent of Lemuria. (35)

The weirdness did not end in Necochea, during the spring of 1988 a witness living in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, a witness reported one night an unusual object that flew into his apartment and ‘confronted’ him. The object was about 2 ft in diameter and made a rather loud humming noise, it flew in a perpetual left-to-right motion. Soon after this incident he was confronted by a being, which he described as looking like a supreme “military” commander, Olympic athlete and a genius scientist, all in one. He had short almost wavy white hair, trimmed around the ears and neck, red eyes, and was wearing what appeared to be a white almost fluorescent silk or satin t-shirt, with “Army type” shorts with four fluorescent insignias running down the right thigh. He also wore fluorescent sneakers on which matched one of the colors of the bottom insignia.

The witness reported numerous encounters with this individual and was apparently taken into other “realms.” He remembers seeing what appeared to be ‘spaceships’. On another occasion the witness saw what appeared to be 6 winged creatures suddenly appear in the sky and move swiftly upwards in a “triple helical” fashion and after performing 2 loops suddenly vanished. Even stranger, the witness claims that on another occasion he saw what the Jews had historically referred to as the ‘Ark of the Covenant’ flying in the skies over where he lived. The appearance of the box-like object was amber gold in color. Upon the top edges were two winged creatures whose wings slowly and surely moved in and out with only the tips of their wings touching each other. After this incident he remembers facing the being with the white hair and red eyes. He smiled and spoke some words about the earth’s future...namely that global warming will destroy earth’s civilization, the atmosphere is running out of oxygen, that negative extraterrestrials have the world under control, and there may be a nuclear holocaust but before it happens, the negative intelligences will “land.” Since the above incidents he has had numerous “lucid dreams” in which he has seen different types of ‘aliens’ apparently working together, apparently towards some yet unknown goal. (36)

In the summer of 1988 in the ancient capital of Budapest Hungary, one early morning the witness was on his way to work, it was still dark as she turned into Vorosmarty Square, and the first thing he noticed was a strange silence in the area, not even the birds were chirping. He was concerned and looked around when suddenly he saw sitting on a nearby bench a huge 3meter tall figure. The strange man was wearing a gray jacket, and black trousers. He sat cross legged and stared at the witness. The witness noticed that the “man” had beautiful sparkling blue eyes and long shoulder length hair and was of thin built. The witness stood 30 meters away trembling with fear as the stranger stared at him. As he looked closer he realized that the strange man did not have a “face” only eyes, his face seemed to be covered in a dark gray swirling mist. The figure never moved during the encounter. Eventually the witness walked away terrified and did not look back. (37)

Again in the summer of 1988, at around 03:00am in the infamous Caribbean Rain Forest of El Yunque, Puerto Rico the witness, who was participating in a survivalist camping trip was returning down to the camp site late at night when he saw about 60 feet away a cluster of multi-colored lights floating above the ground. Suddenly the lights floated behind a rock. There was a sudden flash then a tall man stepped from behind the rock.

The man was about six foot two inches tall with long blond whitish hair, he wore a white outfit. At this point the witness felt paralyzed and could not move and began to cry. The being walked towards him and demanded that he stop crying, that he was on a peace mission. The being then knelt down and began drawing symbols on the soft ground, resembling a circle with a triangle inside and a human figure within the triangle. The being then walked away and disappeared behind the rock, at this point the witness was able to move again. (38)

On November 28 1988, at around 23:30 in Holbury, Hampshire, England, 20-year old Maxine Watkins was alone walking to her home along a lonely avenue when she noticed the branches of the trees lining the road moving furiously as if in a strong wind. The frightened witness began quickly walking away from the area. Suddenly a pulsating light appeared, it seemed to originate from a round or oval object from behind the trees. The object then came over the witness and shot a beam of bright light at her. She suddenly found herself in a strange room facing a bald-headed man wearing a flowing black cape with a high collar. The man was holding both his hands outstretched and cupped in them was an orb with a cross attached. The witness could see two other beings one on either side of the caped man. She was then floated to a table where her legs were clamped and she was unable to move. The beings attempted to reassure her by telepathy, but it had little effect. She remembers her captors pulling down a complicated apparatus and placing it over her head. Next thing she knew she was a crumpled heap on the pavement about 100 yards from where she first saw the pulsating light. Suffering from a severe headache and eye irritation she was able to see the bright oval object shoot up into the sky and vanish. (39)

As 1989 rolled in, the former Soviet Union was no more, and encounters from the former Union were non-stop, the Iron curtain was not the only thing that had fallen in Eastern Europe.

But first, sometime during 1989 one evening around 18:30 in that mystical, high strangeness mountain called, El Yunque, Puerto Rico, a woman, 39-year old, Maria reported that as her husband Jerry and a friend attempted to repair a nearby television cable antenna she stayed behind by the car in order to look around the rainforest and take pictures. When she returned to the car she left the door opened as she sat inside to rest. Suddenly out of nowhere appeared a man standing next to the car at about 3-feet away from her. He stood there for about 30 seconds without saying a word. The man was about 6'tall, human-like, that when he finally spoke, he did it in an American accented monotone and walked in a stiff gait, as he moved away. He was very pale and had short blond hair. He wore a colorful Hawaiian shirt and blue pants. The stranger then approached the men and asked for a ride back to town since his car had apparently broken down. On the trip back to town, which took about 20 minutes, the stranger sat without moving or speaking a word, he then asked to be let out in an isolated part of town (Fajardo) where there some abandoned houses, he left the car without saying a word and quickly disappeared down a empty street. The witnesses soon came to the realization that the stranger had apparently communicated or 'spoken' to them by using telepathy. At no time did Maria hear the stranger talk. (40)

Quoting the immortal Charles Fort, this strange "procession of the damned" will not soon come to an end.

On April 12 1989, in Perth, Western Australia, at around 00:25am, a woman was awake in bed next to her sleeping husband when she became aware of a high pitched sound. On the right side of the bed a short figure suddenly appeared. It was described as semi-transparent and wearing a bright green neon belt and a green ring. The entity was examining a box when the witness made a sudden move. The being then touched a belt around its waist and vanished in plain sight. (41)

Now it was Russia's turn (and its former Provinces of course!).

Sometime in May or June 1989 near the small town of Ortachala, south of Tblissi, Georgia (formerly a Soviet Union Province, not yet independent at the time), one evening several witnesses, including a 9-year old boy Evgeniy Nikolaevich Gigauri and an older friend observed the flight of a round silvery object near the hamlet. When the object approached their position, it appeared to be a silver oval-shaped craft that was semi-transparent in the center. They could see a humanoid entity inside. The entity resembled an elderly man wearing silvery clothing, which emitted a faint light. The man was in a sitting position, typical that of a driver or chauffeur, but visibly he appeared not to be operating any controls---his immovable hands were positioned on his knees or on some panel that was only faintly visible. No other details of the object's interior could be seen. The object was about 1.5-2 meters high and flew very low over the witness's heads; it then turned slowly and flew towards the mountains south of Tblissi. The young boys then rushed to tell their parents what they had seen. (42)

On May 19 1989, in the capital city of Moscow, Russia, a local 20-year old woman, named "Linda" was visited by several alien beings at night. These beings suddenly appeared inside her apartment and woke her. She then saw three alien figures in her bedroom; two were typical "Nordic blond type" a male and a female, and the third entity a robotic type. Both Nordics were dressed in tight-fitting silver suits, resembling fish scales. Both had light wavy hair (the woman shoulder length and the man somewhat shorter). The woman wore a belt around her waist resembling a bandolier (ammunition belt) and pearly shiny in nature.

She communicated telepathically with the witness. Among many different things she said was that the "bandolier" was actually a "universal device" and they use it to "dematerialize" and compress and vanish their robot, or restore it back to visible matter. The aliens then invited to look at their spacecraft which was hovering outside the window. She agreed and looked out the window and saw the craft hovering at a very close proximity. She described the craft as being boomerang-shaped or wing-shaped with rounded ends. It had a hemispherical protrusion in the center top with a broad window covered with a net-like structure. On top of the dome were three antennas, resembling feelers---one vertical, and the other 2 on the sides. Two circular columns of light were projected down to earth from the craft. The "Nordic" aliens told Linda that they had settled the Earth from a far distant planet on another solar system. They consisted of "another substance" and were more developed. They warned her about several dangers that she would face in the future. They also told the witness that they were capable of making "pure conception, grow people of the 6th race and missionaries." (Unclear of the meaning). They added that she was an “extraterrestrial being” her soul incarnate into a human body. The male alien told Linda that his name was “Zike”. After the conversation was over the aliens departed and re-entered their craft. Linda then noticed that the craft emanated a whistling and hissing sound during takeoff and the antennas retracted inside. The craft then tilted slightly and then shot away at incredible speed quickly vanishing from sight. Apparently Linda would have further contacts with the same aliens.

“Zike” told the witness that he was her guardian for 10 more years and when she turned 30 another alien would take his place. (43)

That summer (1989) in the town Slobodin, Moscow region, Russia, one night, the witness, Boris E. an aircraft engineer by profession was resting in his family dacha outside of Moscow when one evening he felt that ‘there was something wrong’, what exactly was wrong, he could not pinpoint. So he decided to take a walk in the woods and while doing that he found a “mushroom” naturally he picked it up and suddenly he heard in his mind a voice, “Put the mushroom back!” startled, he ignored the command, and then the order was repeated. So he decided to put the mushroom back, he was uneasy and felt as if someone was ‘experimenting’ on him. He returned home, did not speak to anyone and went to sleep. In the middle of the night he suddenly wakes up and surprised he rubs his eyes, standing at the door of the verandah were two tall, 1.90m, male figures. They were wearing coveralls, and were very muscular and well proportioned; they looked to be about 35 years of age. The coveralls were gold-colored without zippers or buckles and clung to the body, leaving only the face and hands exposed. One of the intruders was holding a screen the size of a small television, which was displaying some symbols, similar to dots both small and large. Somehow Boris remained calm and concentrated on the screen, suddenly its function revealed itself very clearly, the screen was a ‘translator.’

Immediately after, Boris heard in his mind the first questions, “Do you want to travel with us?” Boris thought of his wife and children, who were sleeping peacefully on the other room and he asked the intruder mentally, “Can they come too?”, at this point the two strangers began conversing among each other debating if it was permitted to bring all four members of the family ‘without any consequences’, they spoke about some rules prohibiting such an operation. Then they looked at Boris and realized that he had understood their conversation. Suddenly Boris found himself sprawled on the couch, confused and afraid, it felt as if he had been thrown there by an unknown force. With some difficulty he got up and went back to the room where the strangers still stood. He then asked the men, “If I agree to go with you, when will I return?” “After 40 years” they answered. He felt terrible grief and was hesitant. He sensed impatience in the part of the intruders and heard them say that it was now necessary to take ‘somebody else’. Apparently they had in mind somebody else. Boris again found himself sprawled on the sofa and was again afraid. He heard the door of the verandah slam shut, he wanted to go see but was unable to get up from the sofa. He then slept peacefully. The entire meeting lasted about 10 minutes and it seemed to Boris that the strange ‘guests’ been in a hurry. (44)

Returning briefly to Puerto Rico, sometime in early July 1989 in the coastal community of Peña Blanca, a local fisherman , Orlando Cataquet was returning from fishing in the beach area when he noticed a group of bright white points of light hovering and turning just above the ground nearby. Orlando chased the lights and suddenly lost them behind a small tree. As the witness walked behind the tree he came upon two very tall men standing next to a boulder on the ground. One held his hand on his chest and told the witness not to approach, suddenly there was a flash of light and the witness felt paralyzed, unable to move. He described the two men as very tall and identical in appearance, with light skin, blue eyes and light brown shoulder length hair, they were well built and strong in appearance. They both wore brilliant white tunics with an opened V-neck. They spoke to the witness and warned him of a coming catastrophe, they said that the earth was going to become a cold desolate planet once more. He was then told to turn around and remain still. He then felt a heat blast behind him and saw a bright flash. The two men had disappeared. Later at home he realized that he had lost 3 hours of time and could only remember seeing a long sleek submarine like object that used energy from the water for its propulsion. (45)

Back to the former Soviet Union, in Kohtu, Harju County, Estonia in July of 1989, one evening a woman and her adult daughter were watching television when they heard a loud knock at the window. Looking at the window they saw the upper body of a man. They thought that the intruder must have been standing on a ladder. Both women approached the window and obtained a closer look at the man. He wore a dark gray diver's suit, which had a broad white band that ran over his shoulder and arm. The tall figure was quickly retreating from the window moving diagonally away. They could not discern any facial features. At one point the strange figure turned around with its back to the witnesses and seemed to quickly glide away from the area. (46)

On July 4 1989 in the capital of the Ukraine, Kiev, two women, one named Vera Ignatenko, and a young girl were walking along a canal near some woods when they saw three men approaching on a strange silvery "boat" in the canal. The beings were man-like, wore shiny collarless suits, and had identical pale faces, long golden hair, and large radiant eyes. The beings approached the trio and spoke in the pure ancient Slavic language (a defunct language spoken in old Russia) apparently wanting the witnesses to come with them to their "planet". The beings claimed that they took one person from earth each day. The beings then walked with the women to a nearby hovering silvery barrel-shaped craft with an antenna on top. The women attempted to run away but could not, feeling a tingling sensation and were unable to scream either. The beings apparently decided against taking the three women and released them, they then entered the object via a stepladder. Before leaving, the beings demonstrated a holographic model of the solar system with a tenth planet to the witnesses and warned that electromagnetic emissions from earth and radio signals being transmitted into space attracted many negative alien cultures who are arriving on earth uninvited with the aim to exploit the planet for their own interests. The craft then left quickly and silently. Apparently, Ignatenko was to have further contacts. (47)

On September 27 1989 near Tillamook, Oregon, one afternoon around 16:20, alerted by her young granddaughter to something unusual outside, a woman confronted a disc hovering just above the ground near her farmhouse. Perhaps 20-30 feet in diameter, its shape was later drawn as an inverted toy top and the surface described as “almost transparent.” A bright yellow white light shone at two opposing points along the flat bottom. As the woman approached to within 30 feet, a doorway opened, revealing a human-like being of average height, with blond hair, fair skin, and blue eyes, dressed in a silver coverall. At a window next to the door was a “Bigfoot” creature, seemingly seated and visible from the chest up. For the next few minutes, the woman stared at the two, gaining the impression that the “human” was attempting (unsuccessfully) to communicate. Then the vehicle and beings vanished instantly (i.e. without accelerating beyond viewing range). The woman is a psychic, and claims to have had periodic encounters with UFOs and “Bigfoot” creatures throughout her life. (48)

The same day, September 27 1989 but at a later time, 2300, in the town of Gyomaendrod, Hungary a local farmer was plowing the fields late at night when he noticed a huge orange flattened sphere hovering above some nearby poplars. The object then began to emit a crackling sound and began to approach the tractor. The witness estimated the object to have been about 100 meters in diameter. The object stopped nearby as the tractor’s engine suddenly malfunctioned and would not start, the witness could now see windows on the craft and flashing rotating blue, yellow and red lights on a rim. He also saw what appeared to be a ramp or door on the hull of the craft. At the door he saw three figures, 2 short baldheaded ones, wearing green clothing and bright green boots and a tall human-like female wearing a red dress and boots. What happened next the witness only has vague memories. He remembers suddenly seeing two short figures next to the tractor as the tractor’s lights also became extinguished. Soon the witness found himself onboard the object where he was taken to a room where he saw a woman lying on top of what appeared to be a glass tube.

He then sat on a very comfortable “couch”. There he was apparently “interviewed” by the short humanoids. Onboard he also saw two tall bearded ball human males, one of which appeared to have been the ‘commander’, both had large eyes. One of the men showed him a coin with a triangle-like emblem and a white long-necked bird; he also saw writing that reminded him of cuneiform. Later the tall slanted eye woman who also had a very gruff voice established sexual relations with the witness. After that he was seen images of rivers, bridges, and pyramids, apparently on a foreign planet. Later he was apparently transported to an underground base where alien-human hybrids were shown to him. He was eventually returned to his tractor around 03:00am. The witness was shocked to realize that four hours had passed. (49)

Back to the Russian capital of Moscow in early October 1989, a weird tale emerges, during the night shift at the local oil and gas institute, gas worker Victor Petrovich M. was busy in his workshop when he noticed unknown people moving about in the internal courtyard of the institute. At the same time two cone-shaped objects appeared on the flat roof of an adjacent building: height of one, about 1 meter, the other a little less. At the apex of the larger object something was revolving. Six strangers, dressed differently stood by the objects; all appeared very human-like and wore diving suits and no helmets. Judging by their behavior they appeared to be performing repairs. Suddenly in the witness' workshop two short figures, about 1 meter each in height appeared and began rummaging around, apparently looking for something. Their motions are somewhat mechanical, inanimate, from that, Victor drew the conclusion that these were robots. He then saw in the small cone-shaped object, which was almost transparent in nature, a woman, only about 30cm in height. As Victor approached the object, he heard a loud voice apparently coming from the woman, which identified herself as "Binetta" the witness then yelled out his name.

Immediately, Victor, using the internal phone system called for some guards, reporting the intrusion, but these arrived and quickly left, saying that they could not see anything. The whole time the strangers continued to be preoccupied in repairing their apparatuses. Among those working on the object was an elderly man, which Victor approached and engaged in conversation. The elderly man was apparently irritated and spoke in a moralizing manner. He explained that they had for a long time kept an eye on the Earth. That the children interested them, but he also pointed out that the children nowadays behaved in a terrible manner and in no way should be "allow to prevail" in the family (?). Victor also learned that the stranger's native planet was called "Z" When Victor further inquired about their planet he was told that he must first learn about the Earth more before going into space. Soon Victor's memory became distorted and remembers hearing an incomprehensible language and also hearing what sounded to him like the word "Quantum." Suddenly Victor was overcome by a terrible fear and ran to the guard's quarter, later upon returning the intruders were already gone. Later that night at his home Victor was visited by the woman known as "Binetta," only this time she was about 2 meters in height, and wearing a tight-fitting diver's suit. She appeared normal except for what Victor thought was a disproportionately small head. Victor warned the woman not to make any fuss since his sleeping and ill mother was in the other room. Before disappearing the woman repeated several words, which Victor attempted to memorize and repeated daily. The woman promised to return in early November. At that time Victor became ill and felt very "heavy" experiencing dry mouth symptoms. His wife and grandson reported seeing what appeared to be a luminous blue screen suddenly appearing in the ceiling of the bedroom on two occasions, both times the screen dissolved and strange "thread" like filaments became visible. (50) Convuluted tale to be sure, but such was the state of affairs right before the Iron Curtain crumbled.

Again in October 1989, but this time near Querataro Mexico, in the evening, Pablo E. Hawnser was traveling on his way to Mexico City when he saw a bright light suddenly appear overhead, a round object then appeared, descending in a falling leaf type fashion. It flew above the road at about 200 meters overhead. The round object then descended behind some trees located near the roadway. From about 150 meters away he saw a landed metallic blue colored, smooth disc-shaped craft resting on three platform-like legs. Hawnser walked towards the craft and approached to within 30 meters but was prevented from getting closer by a sort of invisible “magnetic barrier.” After awhile the witness walked back to his vehicle and was surprised to see a small truck parked next to his car. He looked around for any sign of driver or occupants but found none. He decided to walk back to the craft and saw a beautiful female figure walking up into the object on a sort of metallic stairway, a door opened and the woman was let inside. Moments later several openings became visible on the upper part of the craft and the witness saw two men looking at him, he waved at them, and they waved back. He could see a greenish glow coming from inside the object. Suddenly a bright light became visible and the object rose and shot away at incredible speed. The witness has reported further contacts. (51)

We now return to the territory of the former Soviet Union, this time near Kiev, Ukraine. On October 5 1989, at around 23:00, two elderly local women, Melanya Danilovna Lapshina and Maria Mikhaylovna Shamina were standing outside their homes when they saw a globe-shaped object hovering in the air about 5 meters from them. The object emanated two columns of light and had 2 lights on it. The light from the object shone on a nearby storage facility and other buildings and trees. The globe-shaped object was gold in color and it suddenly began to descend towards the ground. The globe appeared to have a transparent glassy cupola on top. Two “men” could be seen inside. The men were large with broad-shoulders and stood one on each side of the dome, a third smaller humanoid was sitting down and operating something with it hands on a black control panel. The stunned women then saw the humanoids wave at them and they began doing the same thing in response, coming closer to the object. They noticed that the aliens were dressed in gray, tight-fitting “spacesuits.” The humanoids were very tall with broad backs and shoulders. The humanoid that was sitting at the control panel paid no attention to either the witnesses or his two companions. The two tall humanoids again waved at the witness, and one of the women invited them to descend to the ground, but by using hand gestures they indicated that they couldn’t do that. The whole event lasted about 30 minutes. And then in front of the two astounded women the globe enveloped itself in a crimson-pink color, which covered the whole craft all the way to the top and the humanoids vanished. The globe then ascended, changed color to gold and disappeared at high speed. (52)

Again in the Ukraine, in the suburb of Bovary near the Ukrainian capital of Kiev, on October 31 1989, at around 03:00am, a female witness named Iva Gospina who had previously seen various UFOs maneuvering over the area woke up late at night feeling apprehensive suspecting someone had broken into the apartment. She checked the apartment and found her family sleeping and everything else in order. She then looked out the window and noticed to her surprise a short woman wearing a tight-fitting black suit standing at her door, the woman had long straight white hair down to her shoulders, there also appeared to be a small black dog standing next to the woman, but since it was dark the witness could not see any other details. Still feeling apprehensive she walked back into the living room and attempted to sleep on the couch. Suddenly a large luminous yellow circle slowly entered through the closed blinds of the window. Three figures, similar to people then appeared standing on her carpet. The figures wore diver's suits similar to 'cosmonauts' or robots and were approximately 140-150cm in height. Two of them wore diving suits similar in color to frosted glass, and the third wore a golden scaly suit. The yellow light was now arranged in a semi-circle above the figure's heads. The figures stood quietly without moving or speaking. In a state of panic the witness mentally commanded the figures to depart. Immediately these figures disappeared and the luminous yellow circle floated slowly out the window. The room became absolutely dark again. The witness stood up and rushed to the window feeling some regret that the figures had left and she yelled out for them to return in despair, thinking that she had lost a unique chance in her life to communicate with extraterrestrial beings. Later that night as she attempted to sleep she heard and "felt" a large figure enter her room and stand over her. She felt completely paralyzed and was unable to move and couldn't open her eyes from fear. Again she panicked and mentally commanded the intruder to leave. The next morning she learned from neighbors that a red luminous object had been seen hovering over the area. She then understood that the three aliens who had entered her room had come in peace and she regretted not having contacted them. (53)

On November 1989 early in the morning around 6:05am, near Wigan, England, a man driving on the A1 motorway towards his place of work was passing along an area of open land when he was startled to see a huge object hovering about 60 feet above a field. The object was metallic and was segmented like a hand-grenade. It had a huge transparent window on one side and on the opposite side there was something resembling a radar dish. Through the window the witness could see three human-looking men that appeared to be sitting at a table talking. The witness drove off at high speed from the area. (54)

On November 11 1989, during the day, in the resort town of Sochi, Caucasus region, Russia, a woman named L. Suhareva had arrived at Adler Airport located on the Black Sea coast to place her bags into the automatic baggage locker. There a strange “man” that suddenly entered the room confronted her; the man appeared to be about 25 years of age, taller than average, solidly built, disheveled hair and a pale “serious” face. The stranger looked around the room in confusion, apparently searching for something. He wore a black leather jacket and jeans. His movements were slow and awkward sometimes appearing to be in slow motion. The “man” then examined the walls of the room, at one point peering under a bench. He then noticed an electric socket (wall outlet) he poked into with his long wide-placed fingers and ordered a man (Ivan) that was sitting nearby to move aside, in clear Russian. Everyone in the room was amazed at the behavior of the stranger and reproached him. He tried to say something but then waved his hand and walked out. Several minutes later he returned and leaning over looked into the wall socket again. He was then asked by another bystander named Edward, what was he looking for and he mumbled something about a gift and scarf. Suhareva then asked the stranger if he had forgotten his locker number, or had not written it down, perhaps he was looking in the wrong area. In a bewildered look the stranger asked, “What is write down”? And mumbled some other incomprehensible words, Suhareva continued asking him questions and asked what town he had flown in from, the stranger answered, “Sverdlovsk.”

Asked if he came in by airplane or train, he thought for a minute, pronounced airplane syllable by syllable and then as if reacting suddenly he yelled, “No, I descended by aggregate. You have different atmosphere here, strong pressure, I became ill.” The people in the room stared at him in amazement, some becoming frightened. But Suhareva preserved her self-control and asked the stranger, “What is aggregate? You mean by flying saucer don’t you?” The stranger then seemed to become angry, reiterating, “No! I descended by aggregate!” Then he leaned on Edward’s shoulder and asked for the wall socket, saying that he needed to “recharge.” The stranger then sat on the bench in front of the outlet. Then he grabbed hold of the windowsill with his right hand and stuck his middle finger into the socket (!). He began to shake, his face now covered by strange blue spots. 10-15 seconds later he took his hand out of the socket and vigorously shook his head. The blue spots then vanished. The stranger then stood up and walked towards the door, saying, “That’s all, I remember now!” He was now speaking in a normal tone of voice. When the stranger walked out of the room, two of the men in the room, (Edward & Ivan) experienced severe headaches and asked who the stranger was. Suhareva was convinced that it had been an extraterrestrial. (55) Whoever this character was (time traveler?) it is very clear there were some very weird happenings and encounters all over the Soviet Union the year the Berlin wall fell. As a matter of fact the above incident was exactly during the time of its destruction (East Berliners were first allowed to walk through the checkpoints on November 10 1989).

In the middle of November 1989 in the city of Novgorod, Russia, a witness, 23-year old Tatiana was sleeping around 2300, when suddenly she woke up to see the ceiling light switched on and immediately had the impression that there was someone else in the bedroom with her. She opened her eyes and was amazed that at the edge of her bed sat a “young man”. He was very tall, somewhere around 2 meters. He appeared to be about 25-26 years of age. The man’s face was unnaturally beautiful, very kind in appearance, with skin of an unusual peach tint. He also had a high forehead and radiant blue eyes, his eyebrows formed into an arc; his nose was straight and small. He had short light brown hair, neatly combed. The man wore a suit of a light-brilliant fabric without any buttons or fasteners. His chest was wide. And his strong athletic body was visible under his suit. He was sitting half turned, looking at Tatiana. She did not feel fright or alarm and stared at the stranger for about 10 minutes. She even moved up a little to obtain a better look at the intruder. She felt good “vibrations” emanating from the stranger. She then apparently fell asleep and around 05:00am was awakened by her mother who asked her why she hadn’t switched of the ceiling light. Tatiana noticed that soon after the incident a head cold which had been lingering completely vanished. (She would have another encounter with a different humanoid in April 1990). (56)

On November 20 1989 near Norwich, England, an anonymous woman telephoned RAF Wattisham in Suffolk in a state of distress to describe an encounter she had the previous night. The woman told the operator at the base that the incident happened as she was walking her dog on a sports field close to her home around 2200. She was approached by a man with a “Scandinavian type accent” who was dressed in a light brown garment like a flying suit. The man asked her if she was aware of stories about large circular flattened areas appearing in fields of wheat, and then went on to explain that he was from another planet similar to Earth, and that the circles had been caused by others like him who had traveled to Earth. The man said the purpose of their visits was friendly but they were told not to have contact with humans for fear that they would be considered a threat. The woman said she was “completely terrified” and after about 10 minutes the man left. As she ran home she heard a “loud buzzing noise” behind her and turned to see a large glowing orange-white spherical object rising vertically from behind trees. (57)

In Late December 1989, in the borough of Queens, New York, at around 01:00am, a man, Eddie Sosa (involved in other encounters) who had been suffering from Hodgkin’s disease suddenly woke up in the middle of the night, completely unable to move. Five tall human-like figures then materialized in the bedroom. These were described as blond-haired with blue eyes and wearing white robe-like tunics. They smiled at the witness and then proceeded to insert several needle-like instruments into his lower abdomen area. Sosa, apparently blacked out, but finally woke up the next morning feeling ‘very good’. The next day he visited his doctor and was told that the cancer had somehow gone into total remission. (58)

On the next journal we will examined similar encounters in the decade of the 90’s. The blond and their kin were still around and were not going anywhere.

THE PRE-ARNOLD CORNER

---

During the so-called pre-Arnold days, when Ufology was still at its infancy and abductions and the grays were not yet the main theme, there still occurred encounters with the ‘Blond and their kin.’

During the Russian civil war in the year 1920 somewhere in the Crimean Peninsula, Ukraine (a Soviet province at the time), a mobile Red Army group was moving along a local road in the rugged mountains of the Peninsula. There were a total of five soldiers including one woman. They were moving in a car wagon and were armed with rifles and “Maksim” machine guns. Suddenly they noticed a lighted area on the side of the road and then stopped near the road, prepared their weapons and began to check the area. They soon came upon a strange dome-shaped object on the ground and several tall figures walking near the object. The figures were described as dressed in a kind of armored suit, resembling chainmaille. These figures were about 2 meters in height, or perhaps taller. Thinking that these were foreign enemies, the group prepared to fire upon the strangers with their Maksim machine guns but were suddenly blinded by a bright flash of light and knocked down losing consciousness. When they regained their senses gain, the object and the strange figures had disappeared. (59)

One afternoon in June of 1923 near Mount Erie, Illinois, 10-year old Norman Massie had gone out to take his horse into a pasture. As he led his horses through the gate he noticed an object with lights all around it nearby. He walked to within 50 feet of the object and noticed five men onboard the craft. He described the men as about 4 ft tall with blond hair. As he got closer he could hear them talking. One of the men sat on a chair, & the others called him the “Commander.” The other men made trips back & forth into the object. Massie then overheard one of the men tell the commander that the ‘repairs had been made.’ The object was described as metallic and standing on three legs. It had a dome on top with holes on it. The top of the object resembled melted glass. The object then rose up and hovered & the tripod legs telescoped up into the belly of the craft, which went straight up then shot away towards the west at high speed. (60)

In or July or August of 1940 one afternoon in Central Jutland, (no more specifics provided) Denmark, a 15-year old boy was walking in pastures when he encountered 3 persons wearing dark greenish, shiny, close fitting suits covering all but the face, which was covered with a transparent material. Two ‘sausage’ like tubes on the front extended from she shoulders down to the feet. There were no buttons or pockets. When 30 yards away, the men turned off the path. From a hill the boy could see them approaching a shiny, dome shaped object on the ground 200 yards away, the size of an airplane. When they reached it they disappeared, no door being visible. Then the object rose vertically a short distance and shot off at tremendous speed, disappearing in a few seconds. (61)

THE FRINGE

Are there so-called hybrids living among humans, are they the vanguard of the coming race that shall inherit the Earth after the reign of Homo-Sapiens is done? In some dark corners this is whispered.

In 1980, in a property just outside of Gisborne, North Island, New Zealand, a husband and wife were walking along a country road one afternoon, returning from a shop where they had bought some ice-cream. There appeared to be no other cars or persons on the road. Suddenly up ahead of them at a distance of 200 meters was a “family”, two adults and two children. They were walking towards them on the same side of the road. The first strange thing that the witnesses noted was that the group was walking all in like abreast of each other, in perfect timing in their walk and body movements and looking straight ahead at the witnesses. It was very odd behavior for a family, seemingly walking as in a military fashion and all in sync. Then the witnesses noticed their dress, all of them had a mixed match of world cultural garments on. The oldest male had a South American like shawl and what looked like “Peruvian” shoes and a strange hat, like a cashmere cap. This was how they were all dressed, dressed in a collage of international clothing. It looked like they had no idea of ever being in human clothing. Now they were only 30 meters in front of the witnesses still in a perfect horizontal line. All of them holding their gaze, they never took their eyes off the witnesses. Their skin was olive and their eyes were the bluest dark blue. Their pupils were like slits, cat’s eyes only horizontal. Their hair was dark and the children’s ages were around, the male child 10 years of age and the female child around 13 years of age and the adults maybe in their late 20’s. The man’s wife at this time was squeezing his wrist so hard that it was cutting of his circulation. They moved to the center of the road and they kept on walking towards them, but never strayed from their course, or their unusual gait or movement which was very unusual. As they were right beside the witnesses, only 2 meters to their left they were staring at them without turning their heads or changing their strange body behavior. No one spoke a word. The man’s wife was in fear, dragging and quickening her pace. He was not scared and knew somehow they wanted “help”. He was thinking this to himself when he turned around to look at them. They were 10 meters from him walking in perfect formation with their backs facing the witnesses. Then they all turned in the exact moment, the turn was chilling and at the same time. As they stood there looking at the witnesses still in line, the couple couldn't believe what was happening. The man was receiving strong thoughts that they were in trouble. Suddenly his wife started pulling him up the road and only 10 seconds elapsed when he turned around again and they were not there. Open fields as far as the eye could see, there was no possible hiding place. (62)

Any information or questions please contact author Albert S Rosales at:

Garuda79@att.net or alberthumanoid@gmail.com

1. <http://www.unexplained-mysteries.com/forum/index.php?showtopic=174915>
2. http://ufosnw.com/sighting\_reports/2010/newbergor10282010/newbergor10282010.htm
3. <http://www.alien-ufos.com/personal-ufo-alien-experiences-alien-dreams/>
4. Personal communication from witness who requested anonymity.
5. MUFON CMS
6. Vision Ovni, Argentina
7. Direct communication from the witness
8. NUFORC
9. Personal communication from the witness, also phone conversation.
10. Evidencia OVNI # 20
11. Geipan Archives
12. Liliana Flotta & Eduardo L Grosso, Argentina
13. Linda Moulton Howe, Glimpses of Other Realities, Volume I
14. Cynthia Hind, Phenomenon 40 years of Flying Saucers
15. Revista Brasileira de Ufologia (Translation Albert S Rosales)
16. Revista Brasileira de Ufologia (Translation Albert S Rosales)
17. Alexey K. Priyma, "XX Century Chronicle of Unexplained Mysteries" Moscow 1998
18. Brad Mildern, Australia
19. X-Libri UFO Russia, quoting "Interesting Newspaper" Kiev Ukraine # 6
20. UFO Nachrichten 287, July 1984, Project Becassine
21. Hachiro Kubota, FSR Vol. 31 # 1
22. Painel Ovni, Brazil
23. Peter Hough and Jenny Randles, "Mysteries of the Mercy Valley"
24. Phillip Imbrogno & Marianne Horrigan, "Contacts of the 5th kind"
25. Jacques Vallee, UFO Chronicles of the Soviet Union
26. Kazimierz Bzowski, Chairman OSSA Club
27. Marisol and Jose Antonio Roldan, Revista Enigmas # 146
28. Robert Robe Regional Catalogue, Groupe 5255
29. UFO Sightings in New Mexico & the World
30. Revista SIGNOS, Cuba 2002
31. Panamanian Paranormal Forum
32. Lice Moreno, Spain
33. Vladimir V. Rubtsov PhD, Mufon Symposium Proceedings 1994
34. CPB UFO Brazil
35. Guillermo Daniel Gimenez, Necochea Argentina
36. Personal communication from witness
37. Imre Bajka, Kriston Endre RYUFOR Foundation Hungary
38. Jorge Martin, Enigma # 52 & 53

39. Carl Nagaitis and Philip Mantle “Without Consent”
40. UFO PR Vol. # 1 # 1
41. Keith Basterfield, Australia
42. Vadim A. Chernobrov, “Chronicles of UFO Visits” Moscow 2003
43. Nikolay Nepomnyaszhiy “Book of Mysteries # 4” Moscow 1993
44. <http://ufo.metrocom.ru/book3/hanco3/ajaja.htm>
45. Jorge Martin, Jaime Franco, Enigma # 28
46. Erkki Alo Kirde, Igor Volke, Estonian UFO Network
47. Timothy Good, UFO Report 1991
48. Gene Elliot Mufon Journal # 264, April 1990
49. Kriston Endre RYUFOR Foundation Hungary
50. UFOZONE Russia
51. Yohanon Diaz Vargas, UFO Terra Clubs Mexico
52. Mark Milkhiker, in “Rabochaya Gazeta” Moscow February 25 1990
53. UFO Ukraine, Interesting Newspaper D-8 block, Kiev # 8, 1999
54. Tony Dodd, UFO Magazine Vol. 11 # 3
55. Letter to several Ukrainian and Russian UFO Magazines and Newspaper, 1990
56. Gennady Ivanovich Kizilov & Galina Sergeevna Soboleva, Novgorod, Russia
57. Sarah Knapton in: The Telegraph---London England UK
58. Personal details provided by the witness to the author
59. Anton Anfalov, quoting “UFO Liaisons of the Universe”, Lugansk, Ukraine
60. Len Wells, Evansville Courier
61. SUFOI Newsletter 1975
62. Brian Vike, Director HBCC UFO Research, Hbccufo@telus.net

NEXT JOURNAL WILL CONTAIN PART 4 OF “Encounters with the Blond and their kin” COVERING THE 90’s DECADE.